

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
March 20, 2016

*Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.
Phil 2:8-9*

FATHER'S REFLECTION

FIRST CANONIZER AND CANONIZED...WHO?

Today's gospel is long enough to merit short reflection. Though the gospel contains many beautiful and moving passages and it would be a real challenge to decide which of these passages is the most striking in terms of profundity, pathos, and sheer human resonance. However, even if after a careful thought of this Passion narrative we still find ourselves unable to select which passage is the greatest of all, we would probably all agree that the one about the good thief is surely one of the most sublime not only of this Passion narrative but of the entire four gospels.

'Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.' These words constitute the 'FIRST CANONIZATION' in history. And what a unique canonization that was! It was done not by a Pope but by Jesus Christ himself, the very Son of God. What an amazing scene! Bible scholars might well argue about whether or not a pontifical canonization is an infallible act of the Magisterium, but they have no doubt about this one: it was unquestionably infallible. Furthermore, it involved not a virtuous person but a criminal. Finally, it was not performed amid the pomp and circumstance of a pontifical pageantry but in the sordid setting of a public execution, the CANONIZER and the canonized being both nailed to a cross.. what an amazing fact in our faith journey.

What induced Jesus to canonize this particular criminal? Just two things; one thing is that, Jesus required from all his listeners when he initiated his public ministry: 'Repent and believe in the gospel.' This man repented, he admitted his sinfulness: 'Have you no fear of God,' he asked the other criminal, ' for we are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received correspond to our crime.' The other thing is; this criminal had a groping faith in Jesus since he said to him: 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' Repentance and a one-time single act of faith matter to God. It insured his eternal salvation.

Let us remember this when we are tempted to despair of ever reaching heaven. If we are sorry for our sins and reach out to Jesus, we are sure to find ourselves one day 'with him in paradise.' Turn away from sin and turn to God then we will find ourselves among the canonized by Jesus himself.. COME AND BE COUNTED!
